

Quality policy, the environment and occupational health and safety

Be committed to the implementation and supervision of construction work and construction of integrated metal and electromechanical according to customer requirements.

Be committed implementing of a Quality Management System, environment and occupational health and safety management system conforming to the international standard ISO 9001:2008, ISO 14001:2004 & OHSAS 18001:2007 and be also committed for its improvements and development.

ARCONS Company is committed to plan and implement goals of quality, environment, occupational health, safety and provide a framework for a plan to achieve the purposes of the company, revise its targets, the special quality, environmental, occupational health and safety.

ARCONS Company is committed to make this policy available to the public.

ARCONS Company is committed to the improvement of Construction, continual development of the system, reduction of environmental pollution, decreases the dangers of occupational safety and health resulting from the activities of the company.

ARCONS Company is committed to be in- compliance with legal requirements, other requirements and the legislation related to the company activities.

Approved...

Signature:

MR. Atef Al-Adly
Managing Director